

TERMS CONDITIONS AND LIABILITIES

PARTICIPATING IN ACTIVITIES AT THE CLIMB ZONE

Cahoots Adventure Camp is committed to conducting its recreational programs and activities with the highest levels of safety. Cahoots strives to reduce risk to participants through ongoing audits, regular maintenance, adherence to best practice standards and team training and development. It is a condition of entry that participants follow the safety rules and instructions to ensure personal safety.

Guests of Cahoots Climb Zone acknowledge that certain risks of injury are inherent to participation in adventure and climbing activities. Guests or their parent/guardian agree that they choose to engage or allow engagement in Cahoots Climb Zone attractions and activities of their own volition and recognise the activities contain inherent risks and dangers that no amount of care, caution, instruction, or expertise can eliminate.

Guests understand that the dangers and risks of participating in these activities include, but are not limited to, serious physical injury, long-term disability, death, fractures, sprains and strains. These types of injuries may be minor or serious and may result from one's own actions, or the actions or inactions of others, or a combination of both. Guests agree to waive and release Cahoots Climb Zone, Cahoots Adventure Camp and Kids Camps Ltd, its operators and team members from all liability for bodily injury, property damage or loss or death arising from their participation in activities offered by Cahoots Adventure Camp.

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

Cahoots reserve the right to refuse entry or request guests to leave the venue for any of the following:

- Cahoots Climb Zone will remain open in most weather conditions (except in circumstances of lightning, high winds or storm).
- Some Climb Zone activities may be affected by weather conditions and participants may be required to vacate the course and must follow the instructions of Climb Zone team members.
- Children under 15 years of age must be accompanied at the venue by a responsible supervisor/guardian who is 18 years of age or older and who is responsible for the supervision and safety of their children.
- Different activities have certain height, age or weight restrictions and participants acknowledge they will abide by these rules and may be refused access to certain activities for any of these reasons.

- Guests entering the venue acknowledge the activities in this service may expose them to a greater than normal risk of injury. Guests therefore agree upon entry to the service, the team members and operators of Cahoots Climb Zone shall not be liable for any injury to persons and property and forego any legal rights whatsoever and howsoever incurred, including but not limiting to omission, act of negligence, default, or breach of contract.
- Guests are required to attend an Induction Session prior to participating in any Climb Zone activities. Participants are responsible for the full application of safety rules whilst on the activities.
- Terms of Use must be signed by all participants or their parent/guardian (for any participant younger than 18 years), upon checking into Cahoots Climb Zone and prior to participating in any Climb Zone activities.
- Guests entering Cahoots Climb Zone must not be affected to any extent by alcohol, drugs or any prescription medications that result in diminished cognitive abilities and awareness.
- No items may be taken on the courses including, but not limited to, cameras, phones and keys.
- Participants must wear closed-toed shoes with rigid soles.
- Long hair must be tied back and jewellery removed.
- Glasses, including prescription glasses, must be secure or worn with a strap.
- No refunds or compensation will be payable by Cahoots if any participant is not permitted to, or decides not to undertake or complete an activity, or for any of the reasons set out in these Terms and Conditions.
- Inappropriate behaviour or language will not be tolerated and may result in the expulsion from the premises.

By entering Cahoots Climb Zone, participants acknowledge and agree to abide by the above conditions of entry and are subject to Cahoots Climb Zone Terms and Conditions herein.

Participants also agree the use of their image and likeness by Cahoots, as detailed in the below clause Your Details.

TERMS OF USE CLIMBING AGREEMENT

All participants must complete and sign the Terms of Use, Indemnity and Limitation of Liability document available in the footer of the Cahoots Adventure Camp website or via email from the camp office. This is a legally binding document. It affects your legal rights and contains releases of liability and a waiver of your legal rights. The Terms of Use ensures all participants understand the nature of adventure and challenge activities and the risks involved and includes a waiver of liability. As a legal contract, it must be completed accurately by the participant or parent/guardian as applicable. Refusal to complete the Terms of Use document will result in the inability to participate and forfeiture of any activities booked.

Cahoots Adventure Camp reserves the right to change these Terms and Conditions at any time without notice.
